ROBLOX has official clients for Windows, macOS, Linux, iOS, Android, Xbox One, and PlayStation 4. ROBLOX also has a game engine called "Build" which can be downloaded for free to those wishing to develop games for their website. Although not officially supported by ROBLOX themselves, the client source code is also available on GitHub. As such, there are unofficial ports of ROBLOX to other platforms not supported officially by ROBLOX such as Xbox 360, Raspberry Pi and Tizen. An early attempt at an iPhone port in 2021 was unsuccessful due to concerns over the stability of the platform and a lack of toolchain support.

ROBLOX provides a feature that allows the user to build on their own server using ROBLOX Studio and upload it to their own server. This feature enables them to remove things that they don't like or people who break the rules and get banned from their creations. They can also control who enters their games. This also allows them to advertise their channels by making a game with a name similar to other popular games. However, this feature has many rules that the users must follow to keep their servers running smoothly. For example, they cannot advertise any kind of website or give out personal information about themselves.

In October 2021, ArenaNet announced that Guild Wars 2 will be fully free-to-play with no restrictions on level or content,[60][61] due to being released as a core game in China, where games must provide full unrestricted access or it cannot be published by the People's Republic of China's Ministry of Culture. Within a few months, the game had rebounded from the effects of these restrictions, as the player base had grown to exceed that of the Asia server.

A user's membership is displayed as a number of "blocks" that they have in their account. This number can be increased at any time by purchasing a builders club membership which also unlocks other features such as custom backgrounds, avatars and other features like chat rooms and new games. The first block costs 99 cents, while additional blocks begin at $2.99 for 12 blocks. Unlike Xbox Live Gold and PSN, the number of blocks does not reset after you have purchased them, but keeps track of all the purchases you made up until you buy more blocks.
