I am not a Minecraft addict, but I do enjoy playing that game. However, that is only because my friends and I play it together. Not because of the millions of dollars or diamonds you can get for free on Roblox. People are obsessed with Roblox; my Facebook account was filled with friends who played Minecraft as if they were addicted to crack. They would constantly post pictures about their new lifesize cardboard builds they worked on at home; taking ages-long breaks between each video to watch more videos of minecraft. That was always the case whenever anyone mentioned it, I'm sure; parents would frequently ask me if and how I managed to get my grades, and teachers would always ask me if we had any homework. Sometimes they'd even assign us essays to write about our time on Roblox; even though a few months before everyone stopped doing them unless they were mandatory.

The merger of servers resulted in the creation of a single player vs. player server and a single role-playing server. The role-playing server was created to stop the underpopulated game world from splitting into two more servers.[62]
